UQ Respect

Your guide to accessing the SMSU: Support and Reporting Options

Step

Step

Survivor Notification

- 1. UQ Respect Disclosure Form
- 2. Direct contact with the SMSU
- appointment,
- phone (+61 7 3443 1000), or
- email
- 3. Direct contact with Human Resources
- Ask HR
- Client Partnering

Formal

Complaint

When someone submits a report directly through the online complaints form.

Third Party Notification

When someone who wasn't directly involved in the event reports an incident or concern.

- 1. UQ Respect Disclosure Form
- 2. Direct contact with the SMSU (via appointment, phone or email)

The Care

Oneⁱ

SMSU meets with Third Party Notifier

(same pathways as for a survivor)

- 1. Provide overview of options
- 2. Educate on survivor choices
- 3. Encourage survivor contact initiated either by the survivor or the SMSU

SMSU meets with Survivor

- 1. Face to face/via Zoom
- 2. Make a phone call
- 3. Email or text

All reporting is Potional

Support Options

- Reasonable Adjustments (e.g. timetable changes, workplace adjustments)
- Informal resolution pathways
- Safety Planning
- External support options
- UQ Respect Training Package/Feedback

Students

Staff

- SMSU Counselling
- EAP Counselling
- Emergency
 Accommodation
- Leave provisions
- Emergency Financial Assistance

Remember that your support options and journey is not limited to these options

Reporting Options

Reporting to one of these organisations doesn't prevent someone from reporting to another (e.g. someone can report to The University and the Queensland Police.)

- 1. The University
 - i. Formal
 - ii. Disclosure Informal
- 2. Queensland Police
 - i. Formal
 - ii. Alternate Reporting Options
 - Informal
- 3. External Organisation
 - i. Formal